Under the present rules the names of absentees without leave cannot be struck off till they are declared deserters i.e. till they continue to be absent for 60 days. During the period of war the number of days required for an absentee to be treated a deserter may be reduced to 21 days if necessary. Sanction of the Govt of India may be obtained for alternative definition of the offence "desertion" in the Supreme Military Regulation II of 1899 "

FINAL NOTE BY THE EXTRAORDINARY MEMBER OF COUNCIL.

Subject:- Amendment of the Mysore Military Regulation, 1899.

- - - -

21 Under the present law absentees without leave cannot be considered as deserters unless the absence continues for two months; and their names cannot be struck off and others appointed instead, till the expiry of that period. As it is desirable that during the continuance of the war the strength of the forces should be kept up at its maximum as far as possible, it is proposed that the minimum period of absence without leave required to constitute the absence into desertion be reduced to twenty-one days during the continuance of the present war and for six months thereafter. This Bill has accordingly been prepared and has been accepted by the Council.

22 If it is approved, the Residency will be requested to obtain the sanction of the Government of India to the Bill.
